Voucher Program

To be eligible for the Voucher program you must be a SNAP recipient or a client of one of the Our Health Partner Agencies.

You will check in at the Our Health booth to receive a Passport to Health card. You will then take the card to each booth where you will receive free screenings and information about their services. Each agency will mark your passport beside their name. When you have visited all the booths you will return your completed passport to the Our Health booth where you will receive your free $5.00 voucher for a single person or $10.00 voucher for a family. You can use your voucher(s) to purchase produce from the participating farmer's market. You cannot use the vouchers for baked goods.

There will be:

- Free dental screenings and blood pressure checks from the Dental Clinic – NSV
- Free screenings and information from other area non-profit health and human services agencies.
- Locally grown fresh produce from Marker Miller Orchards on Cedar Creek Grade.
